It must not be "go." inferred that men view with disfavor the pranks and so-called "badness" in boys. They know that a boy of strong character usually displays these traits, yet is free from dispositions and action or given to dishonora ble dealings, even in his little sphere. These are characteristics which distinguish the dishonorable boy from the manly one, and the sharp-eyed business man is quick to detect them. When possessing the desirable traits a youth is never forgotten by his elders, and though he may leave home for a period of years, upon his return he is at once recalled and recognized by an involuntary reference to memory's pages. The same is true of the characterless boy. His elders recall him, and through life, no matter how

THE PLATFORM.

Hon. J. N. Stubbs, for the com mittee on Resolutions, reported the following, which was unanimously adopted:

We, the Democrats of the First Congressional District of Virginia, in convention assembled, hereby assert our confidence in and devotion to the principles fidence in and devotion to the principles of Democracy as set forth in the declaration of political principles enunciated and adopted by the National Convention held July 4th, 1900, and also the platform of principles adopted by the State Democratic convention held at Norfolk in May last, and pledge our cordial support to William Jennings Bryan and Adlai E. Stevenson, the matchless nominees of the Kansas City Convention. We commend this ticket as worthy of We commend this ticket as worthy of the endorsement of every patriot and friend of liberty, and confidently be-speak for it the cordial support of every Democrat in this Congressional Di-triot.

We hereby cordially endorse the record of our present representative in Congress, the Hon. W. A. Jones, and again recommend him to the suffrages of the voters of this district as a true, tried and faithful representative. We hereby congratulate him upon the fact that the movement he inaugusted and so ably advocated of electing United States Senators by the direct vote of the people has been made a national issue by orporating the same in the Kansas City platform. GO INTO NOMINATIONS.

Dr. F.W Lewis moved, and it was corried, that the convention proceed with nominations

Judge E C Moncure, of Caroline arose and stated that as all were of one sentiment, he would move to nominate Hon. W. A. Jones, by acclamation and a rising vote. Some called for a rell of the counties, but when Hon, Robt McCandlish, of Middlesex, addressed the chair, saying that although he had been selected for the distinguished honor of placing Mr. Jones in nomination he placing Mr. Jones in nomination he heartily seconded Judge Moncure's motion, the motion was put by the chair and carried, with few dissenting voices. Mr Jones was then nominated by a voting. The motion of Judge Moncurs de-prived the convention of hearing many speeches as there were a number among the large preponderance of young men who had intended seconding the nomi nation of Mr. Jones. In fact, Mr. D. B Powers, Jr , of the same county as the Judge, was ready to nominate or second the nomination of the Congressman when Caroline, second on the list hould be called.
